

Interesting Facts

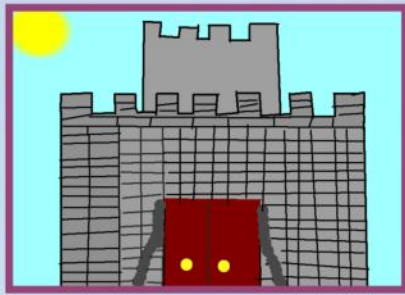

This history guide is one of a series of seven produced by children participating in the 'Bro Cynffig' Chronicles project. The project was funded by the Heritage Lottery in 2007 and since this time children and young people from the following eight schools have been researching into the history of the area.

-  Afon-y-Felin Primary School
-  Cefn Cribwr Primary School
-  Corneli Primary School
-  Cynffig Comprehensive School
-  Mynydd Cynffig Infants School
-  Mynydd Cynffig Juniors School
-  Pil Primary School
-  Ysgol Y Ferch o'r Sger

'The history of Cynffig told by its children with a little help from earlier generations'

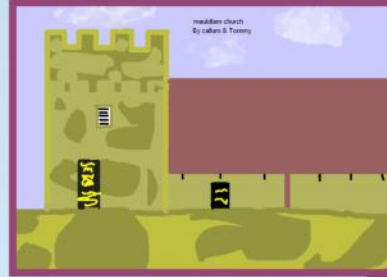

Surrounding the village and the castle is the River Kenfig. All we can see now are the ruins of the castle. The castle was built in the 12th Century. This is what the castle may have looked like 600 years ago
(Rosie and Abby)

6

Maudlam Church - the proper name is St Mary Magdalene Church. The most astounding feature is the font and it is decorated in a scale pattern. It is over 747 years old.
(Cameran and Nathan)

4

Callum & Tommy

5

Under Kenfig Dunes lies the old Town of Kenfig. The buildings were big. The streets were made of stone and mud not tar. There was a market place, some stalls, lots of burgages and in the corner there were workshops, livestock and a mill (Emily and Brittani)

Rebecca & Levi

Abby

Courtney & Justine

3

Steffan and Liam

The M4 goes on and on to London and then it stops. The M4 was built in 1977
(Courtney & Justine)

2

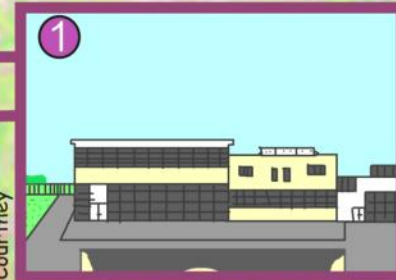

Ricki

Heol Las

This is our school - Corneli Primary which was opened in 1958

1

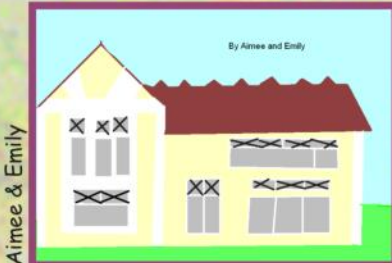

Courtney

Abby

M4 Motorway
During the 1930's nearly five million houses were built in the UK. This is one of the homes in Heol Las.
(Josh & Kyle)

Aimee & Emily

By Aimee and Emily