

Interesting Facts . . .

This history guide is one of a series of seven produced by children participating in the 'Bro Cynffig' Chronicles project. The project was funded by the Heritage Lottery in 2007 and since this time children and young people from the following eight schools have been researching into the history of the area.

-  Afon-y-Felin Primary School
-  Cefn Cribwr Primary School
-  Corneli Primary School
-  Cynffig Comprehensive School
-  Mynydd Cynffig Infants School
-  Mynydd Cynffig Juniors School
-  Pil Primary School
-  Ysgol y Ferch o'r Sger

‘The history of Cynffig told by its children with a little help from earlier generations’

Come for a walk with us and explore Kenfig Hill's past

In the 1930's you could hire a bike from the shop on the corner of Bridge Street

Langfords Ice Cream

In the olden days you could take your dish out to the van to get a slice of ice cream
The raspberry sauce was delicious

The Spar used to be the Co-op Society Ltd Mrs Mari remembers feeling like a princess when she went up its grand staircase

Bridge Street

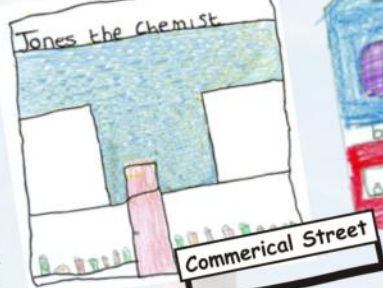

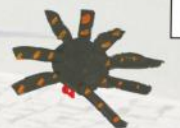

Site of the old Jet Garage and a cottage before that Waubant Road

Lots of shops have been turned into houses

Look out for Tarantulas!!

Commerical Street

Prince Road

We found out about the old Post Office and Telephone Exchange

